II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

III. Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

On June 1, 2021, Plaintiff severely injured his right shoulder and suffered numerous cuts and bruises when he stepped from the parking lot of the Defendants facility at 2860 Maybank Highway, Johns Island SC onto the sidewalk immediately in front of the Post Office and fell forcefully to the pavement. Apparently, the Postal Service had had the handicap spots, lines and curbs painted with some type of zone paint but failed to mark the area with cones, warning tape and/or signs. The light rain that morning turned the painted areas into an extremely slippery surface much like black ice. The Postal Service Supervisor on site that day admitted to Plaintiff that the Defendants had the painting done but had taken no measures whatsoever to warn their customers and /or the public about this condition.

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages.

Surgical repair of Plaintiff's shoulder via a "reverse shoulder replacement" will cost at least $15,000 - $20,000. Plaintiff has already incurred costs for Physical therapy, pain shots, plasma shots and various doctor and surgeon visits totalling over $7,000. Plaintiff also believes he should receive damages for his pain and suffering and emotional distress in an amount to be determined by the Court. Prior to this fall, Plaintiff could easily comb his hair, shoot a basketball with his right hand, pull a shirt over his head or tune his car's radio using his right hand and shoulder. This is no longer the case.
Plaintiff's Standard Form 95 demands $36,500.00
